

The web-based display content management system that puts you in control

Feature Highlights

- Web-based control for display management, scheduling, monitoring and distribution
- Support of standard media formats
- Web 2.0 integration including Google Calendar, Flickr, Twitter and more
- Flexible screen layout with multiple independent zones
- Emergency alert screen override
- Real time or scheduled content playback
- Seamless content updating
- Supports wired, wireless and 3G mobile networks
- Continuous offline playing when internet connection is down
- Reusable presentation templates for easy content creation

Emergency Alerts

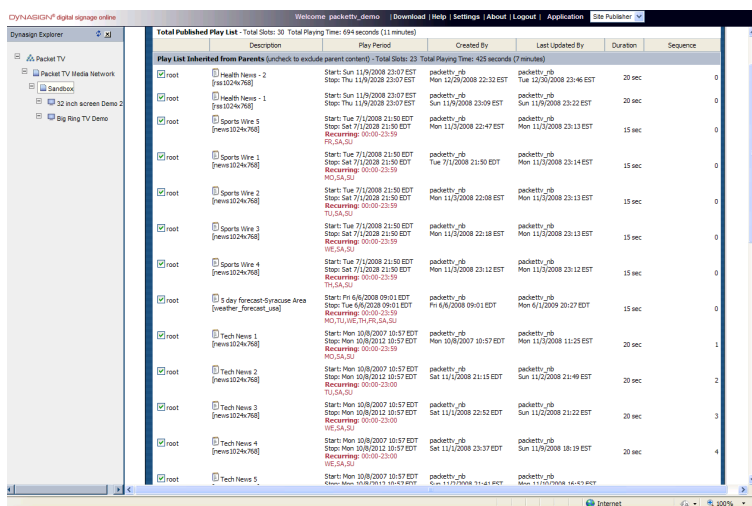

Using Packet TV allows you to quickly send emergency alerts using a single interface to every connected screen.

30 Day NO obligation free trials

Content Management and Scheduling

With Packet TV, you have complete control of your system. You decide what goes on your screens and in what order. It's like having the power of your own TV network at you fingertips. Organize your messages and your content quickly and easily for your audience.

Live Data Integration

With live news feeds from Associated Press and weather from Accuweather, your system is enhanced with fresh updated content.

www.packettv.com 800.515.7618